ROLE-PLAYING SCENARIOS FOR KIDS

It’s not easy Role-playing. The following list gives you suggestions for easy, medium, and hard things that you can practice Role-playing. Start with the easy situations and move onto the medium and hard topics once you feel they are ready to do so.

EASY

- Getting yourself a snack
- Putting a book away
- Picking up a toy
- Putting backpack away
- Brushing your teeth
- Putting away toys
- Putting away backpack
- Turning around 3 times
- Hoping on one foot
- Turning in homework
- Crossing the street
- Sitting quietly at school/church/restaurant
- Saying thank you for presents/gifts
- Going to bed
- Getting up in the morning
- Brushing teeth
- Picking out clothes
- Putting backpack by door
- Checking out a book from the library
- Sharing toys
- Saying please/thank you
- Getting dressed
- Raising hand
- Buckling seatbelt
- Getting out of the car
- Saying sorry
- Singing a silly song
- Dancing for 30 seconds
- Opening the door and say hello
- Telling a joke
- Turning light on and off
- Treating household items

MEDIUM

- Going to the store
- Walking to school
- Getting a school lunch
- Riding the school bus
- Dealing with being hit
- Coming in from outside
- Turning off TV/tablet/computer/video games
- Following instructions from teacher/parent
- Helping someone who is hurt
- Not running away
- Buying something at the store
- Not interrupting
- Introducing yourself
- Accepting compliment
- Asking for something nicely
- Playing a game without arguing
- Putting things away
- Having to finish dinner
- Proper table manners
- Doing school work first
- Following a schedule
- Proper behavior at a friend’s house
- Spending allowance
- Learning manners
- Good sportsmanship
- Engaging with someone new
- Putting away homework
- Using electronics

HARD

- Dealing with being lost
- Dealing with inappropriate touching
- Dealing with seeing porn
- Potty training
- Dealing with a bully
- Getting help if you’re lost
- Telling the truth
- Handling loss
- Graciously accepting present you don’t want
- Helping mom/dad with dinner
- Handling being approached by a stranger
- Handling not being invited to party
- Accepting no from mom and dad
- Handling strangers
- Dealing with anger
- Appropriate conversation topics
- Being nice to animals
- Proper hygiene
- Proper dinner behavior
- Doing chores how mom/dad wants
- Etiquette when in public
- Calming down when frustrated/angry/tired/scared
- Talking about emotions
- What time-out looks like
- Treating specific items in house
- Following house rules
- Using electronics
- Not rolling eyes