

PREVENTIVE TEACHING worksheet

FINDING A MEANINGFUL REASON

The purpose of this is to help you determine what things are meaningful to your child. Use these motivators to help reinforce positive behaviors and decrease negative behaviors. Figuring this out requires a lot of observing on your part as a parent. Spend some time with your child and sometimes it doesn't hurt to turn this into a game. Have fun with it. Keep it convenient, simple, and doable.

Answer the following questions:

1. What does my child like to do in his/her free time? _____

2. Whom does my child like to spend his/her free time with? _____

3. Where does my child like to go in his/her free time? _____

4. If my child could go anywhere where would he/she go? _____

5. What is something my child asks for that I can allow or provide? _____

Just remember, as your child grows, their interests change. Occasionally revisit this form.
